

Please leave the No Call Law as it is. I value my time at home and would appreciate telemarketers respecting my privacy. I work hard all day and want nothing more than a little peace and quiet when I get home in the evening.